

Ranjit's SVAASÁ, is a well-kept secret in the Holy City of Amritsar. Tucked away within the skylines of old tress and decadent arches, this intimate boutique haveli is housed in an aristocratic red brick colonial manor with a family history of 250 years. Ranjit's SVAASÁ stands tall amidst the Spas of India, yet enjoys its quaint boutique nature making it what it is.

Descendants of the noted Rai Bahadur Rattan Chand Mehra family, this haveli has seen royalties & more; today it commands a strong list of socialites, celebrities, media personalities, foreign dignitaries and traveler's world over.

A humble yet elegant family-run haveli, Ranjit's SVAASÁ boasts of its owners being noted personalities of the country. You may find its matriarch Mrs. Rama Ranjit Mehra advising a guest on their wellbeing with a plethora of knowledge and experience behind her. A noted Alternative Medicine Practitioner, she has been covered by and writes for numerous wellness and lifestyle publications across India and has hosted numerous talks on the same. The styling and art across the haveli is designed by her son Vishhal Chand while his twin brother Abhimanyu manages the show. The eldest, Iqbal's education in finance holds them all together to be able to run fruitfully so that the doors of Ranjit's SVAASÁ stay open welcoming for all. With over three generations of hospitality behind them, it is their pleasure to have every guest enjoy the SVAASÁ touch.

Flowering its soothing ambience and guest service in the comforting hands of its caring staff, an extension of the family's morals and values offer you a memorable experience. If you are looking for a place where silence speaks volumes, Ranjit's SVAASÁ is your answer.
