FEEDING LUNCH AT AMRITSAR'S BLIND SCHOOL

Rai Bahadur Rattan Chand, the noted ancestor of the haveli donated land to construct Amritsar's only Blind School. It runs till today in the name of his Trust and provides shelter & food to a number of blind. Ranjit's SVAASÁ will be pleased to organize your visit to the Blind School during their lunch hours so you can give food to them. You may buy some fruits on your way to distribute or just feed them their cooked lunch. Donations to the Blind School are your personal decision and maybe handed over to the manager incharge directly.

FEEDING THE COWS AT THE GAUSHALA

Over 200 cows are looked after in this Gaushala (gau means cow and shala means shelter) by the walled city of Amritsar. Also, a part of the Rai Bahadur Rattan Chand Trust, it supplies cow's milk to a number of homes including Ranjit's SVAASÁ. Let us know if you wish to experience going to the shelter and feed the cows hay for a small amount taken as a token charge. It's a very simple yet captivating experience.

*For all Social Service excursions, SVAASÁ Tours supports your cause and shall donate 10% of the charged tariff to the Trust.
INR 1100/- for the Blind School excursion (45 minutes)
INR 1100/- for the Gaushala excursion (45 minutes)*

RIDE AROUND TOWN

NIGHT PALKI AT THE GOLDEN TEMPLE - TANGA RIDE

Enjoy a memorable ride sitting on your own private horse cart (tanga) to visit the evening procession of the Holy Book at the Golden Temple. An escort accompanies you on your journey to the Golden Temple, lit beautifully with the sounds of devotees chanting and trumpets blowing, and brings you back on your tanga post the breathtaking ceremony. The tanga would be ready to leave after you are done with your dinner. Please book in advance at the Front Desk and reconfirm your time of departure.
